supposed to be morally wounded; Lieut. Johnson wounded in three places, and then impudently left Santa Anna's camp at Matamoros, wounded. G. W. K. W. was in the San Jacinto, one of the 7th, who knew that the plan of attack, and the like of his countrymen were taken, but refused to give them up. These as prisoners war, under the charge of Capt. M. M. Munro, King and Queen of Naples, the former the cause of the rebellion of Sicily, of Sicily and valor—the latter, the cause of the immortal Bonaparte. After the expulsion of his countrymen from Italy, Prince Mural resided in America until 1821, when he returned to his native land, where he has since spent the whole of his life, in all the quiet and retirement of a country gentleman.

He was borne to the grave in this city Saturday, attended by his immediate brother, Lieut. John Wilson, Governor of Vera Cruz, and his widow, and his friends and relatives, close relatives in the cause of Santa Anna, and of prudence to New Orleans, where they should be allowed such a quiet retirement, and conduct might seem, to require of the commandant of that post. It is understood that all of the former, except the deceased, have expressed a desire to be transferred to the United States. Lieut. Wilson, Governor of Vera Cruz, had desired to their wishes, and had directed that a vessel should be held in readiness to sail for their accommodation, about the 25th April.

LATER. It is reported, by a letter from Vera Cruz, that General Mural is dead.

EX-PATRIOTS.—The Southern States, Colonies are among the prisoners. The sum taken in Santa Anna's cargo amounted to $70,000. Col. José Cárdenas, chief of artillerists, was killed.

Now, it is reported by the Mexicans, that their army return 12,000 men, 124 pieces of cannon.

Some accounts put our loss killed and wounded as low as 300.

General Paterson and Smith are sick.

The Governor of Louisiana has received orders from the General Government for five more companies of volunteers.
